

Auditions for Miracle on 34th Street September 13 & 14, 6:00-8:30 p.m.

Schoolhouse Arts Center at Sebago Lake will be holding auditions for Miracle on 34th Street, directed by Keith Halliburton, on September 13 & 14 from 6:00 to 8:30 p.m. Actors will be requested to do a cold read from script. Sides will be available prior to audition. Both speaking and non-speaking roles are available. Most roles will also appear in ensemble and crowd scenes. Families encouraged to audition together! Performance dates are December 3–19 and actors must be available for tech rehearsal November 28th. We will also be signing up volunteers to help with all areas of production. Call 642-3743 or log onto www.schoolhousearts.org for more information.

34th Street – Character breakdown

Susan Walker (female, age 7+ - must be comfortable with dialog) a practical, precocious little girl who wants to believe.

Doris Walker (female, 30+) Susan's mother, a practical, driven, career woman.

Fred Gailey (male, 30+) dashing attorney and true believer.

Kris Kringle (male, over 50) believes he is Santa Claus.

Mr. Shellhammer (male, over 30) nervous executive.

Miss Adams (female, 20s) Doris' secretary.

Cleo (female, over 40) Doris and Susan's housekeeper and protector.

Dr. Pierce (male, over 50) kindly physician.

Jim (male, over 30) kindly zookeeper.

Mr Macy (male, over 50) important businessman.

Mr Gimble (male, over 50) another important businessman.

Mr Sawyer (male, mid 20s or over) fussy disbeliever.

Judge Harper (male, over 50) friendly judge.

Charlie Halloran (male, 40+) judge's campaign manager

Dutch Girl (female, 8+)

Mr. Mara - District Attorney (Adult 30+) good role toward end of play

Many additional roles for all ages

Roles for up to 15 men over 16.

Roles for 7+ women over 16.

Roles for 6+ boys 5-15.

Roles for 5+ girls 5-15.